

SCHOOL CLOTHES

ON MONDAY morning when your boy starts to school it will be a satisfaction to you to know that he will be as well and as stylishly clad as his companions.

If you have any doubt about it, bring him to US to-day and you will be surprised to see what a good, serviceable and stylish suit you can buy for a small amount of money.

Our School Clothes this season are the nobbiest and most DURABLE garments to be found in Washington. All of them well and strongly sewed and thoroughly tailored, the usual weak places made doubly strong and are as near perfection as it is possible for clothes to be. Shall we see you to-day?

BIG RAILROAD PROJECT.

English Capitalists to Build a Road Between New York and Chicago.
NEW YORK, Sept. 20.—A Wilkesbarre special to the World says: The English capitalists have guaranteed the construction of a new railroad to connect New York and Chicago, which will avoid paralleling existing roads and will be 130 miles shorter than the Pennsylvania and 200 miles shorter than the Central. From Findlay, Ohio, to the Pennsylvania State line, the road is now in operation, and work is progressing along the route. The great advantage by which the projectors hope to profit is that the railroad is being built for the through traffic especially. In addition to the English capitalists the American promoters are Russell Sage, Sidney Dillon, Joseph Hayden & Co., Holland Trust Company, Childs & Co. and others.

INTERFERED WITH THE OFFICERS.

And They Were Promptly Locked Up—Flooded To Day.
Yesterday afternoon Officer Curran of the Seventh precinct arrested Anthony Walker, colored, for crap playing, and, as the boy declined to go with him, he clubbed him two or three times. Jim Hicks and Henry Martin, both colored men, came up and said something to the officer, and they were also taken into custody by Officer Hess and locked up for interfering with an officer.

Fielden Gets Out.

Yesterday Officer Galloway arrested Joe Fielden, the pugilist, charged with disorderly conduct and insulting a lady. He is alleged to have broken several windows and of throwing a brick at a lady who was passing. In the Police Court this morning Judge Miller, after hearing the testimony, dismissed the case. He said that the testimony was of such a conflicting character that he had not been able to reach a conclusion. It might have been an accident, and he would give the defendant the benefit of the doubt.

CAPITOL GOSSIP

FAILING TO SECURE A QUORUM THE HOUSE ADJOURNS EARLY.

REPUBLICANS EXPECT TO GET ONE SOON

To Consummate the Outrage They Have Been Laboring to Commit.

THE KODAK IN THE FALL CAMPAIGN.

The Conference on the Tariff Bill Wrestling With the Subject—When Will Congress Adjourn?

The cruel war continues. There were enough Democrats in their seats to order the yeas and nays. This accomplished, they wandered forth, and the status which has prevailed so often lately prevailed once more—there was no quorum voting. No effort was made to secure one, the House, on motion of Mr. Hansen of Wisconsin, who has charge of the contract to unseat Mr. Venable, adjourning until Monday.

The Republicans expect by that time to corral a quorum which shall be their own. If they do they will make short work of the Langston-Venable case. They will immediately consummate the outrage they have been laboring to commit for so many days.

Whether they will go on and dispose of the Miller-Elliott contested case from the Seventh South Carolina district is uncertain. They will not touch Elliott and seat Miller, if they are sure of their quorum. But, if that necessary number is going to play hide-and-seek again, they will let that case go over until next winter.

The Republicans have had pictures of the House made at times when only two or three Democrats were present, while nearly all the Republicans were in their seats. These will be used as campaign material to show how faithful the Republicans are to public duty, and how negligent the Democrats. It is a well-known fact that the Republicans are in the United States. The only one who will profit by it will be the photographer—if he gets his pay.

The conference on the Tariff bill is proceeding very slowly. The Republican members of the committee for the Senate and for the House are still wide apart as to their views on several very essential points. The Democratic members of the committee have intimated to the Republicans that they are growing a weary of the delay, and are urging the two wings of their opponents to stop together in some fashion or other. It is hardly likely now that a report can be agreed upon and reported to the House before Wednesday.

The conference on the Tariff bill met again this afternoon. They are now engaged in a Greco-Roman wrestling match with the sugar schedule. Who will get the fall and when, it is impossible to say now, as the champions are wrestling all over the stage, now up, now down, but they are sure to get the fall sooner or later. It will probably result in one of them getting the strangling lock on the other when it becomes a question of yielding or a broken neck.

A gentleman who was long an officer of the House, and who is a close observer of legislation, said this afternoon that he could not see how the contested adjournment before October 15. He had fixed that date some time ago and still adhered to it.

The Senate this morning considered the bill to reduce the amount of bonds to be required of national banks. It was laid aside without action. The calendar was then taken up, and several bills were taken up, and several bills were taken up, and several bills were taken up.

PROBABLY DISCREET POLICY.

Why the State Department Will Not Let Minister's Report Out.
NEW YORK, Sept. 20.—The Herald's Washington special says: There can be no longer any doubt that Minister Miner's report of the circumstances connected with the murder of General Barreda, on the American steamer Acapulco, has been received at the State Department, and it can be stated on the best authority that the correspondence has been sent to the President. The officials at the State Department still maintain their policy of silence and decline to make public any information they possess concerning the tragedy. The belief obtained here that Minister Miner has played a sorry role in the whole affair, and that the official correspondence places him in such an unfavorable and unbecoming attitude that his superiors are actually ashamed to let in the light of day on the transaction.

The public is interested in knowing how much respectability attaches to the United States Minister for the bloody termination of the horrible affair, and no one here can understand how intentions can be subserved by throwing the veil of secrecy around the facts unless it be those of Mr. Miner.

One theory suggested is that, as it is now known that Congress will call for all the information in the possession of the Government on the case, it is desired to retard its transmission as much as possible with the hope that Congress may soon adjourn, and that pending its resumption public interest in the affair may die out, and the matter be allowed to slumber.

IN LESTITUTE CIRCUMSTANCES.

The Widow of "Pathfinder" Fremont in Need of Financial Assistance.

New York, Sept. 20.—A San Francisco special to the Herald says: The report received in this city a few days ago, that Mrs. Jessie Benton Fremont, widow of General Fremont, was in destitute circumstances in Los Angeles, has been fully confirmed. To-day Judge Sill of Arizona and S. S. Stans, a well-known capitalist of Southern California, arrived here for the purpose of trying to induce the Pioneer Society to start a fund for the relief of the lady, who for so many years was an ornament in Washington society.

When the General died he had not realized anything from the half-pay on which he was retired, and was preparing to come to California to reside with his wife and daughter, who occupy a small cottage in Los Angeles. Mrs. Fremont is now 60, and her daughter Elizabeth 45. They are so poor that when the telegraph came asking the widow's wishes regarding the disposition of the dead General she had to borrow the money to pay for the reply. Her friends have advanced enough to pay pressing creditors' bills for household expenses. Mrs. Fremont has absolutely no resources, her two sons, one in the Army and the other in the Navy, having large families, are not able to render much assistance. The answers to the appeal for aid are likely to be generous, as the Admission Day celebration has revived an interest in the pioneers of the Golden West.

THE PAINTERS' STRIKE

NO CHANGE IN THE SITUATION, AND BOTH SIDES CONFIDENT.

Only a Few Men at Work Under the Nine-Hour System—Favorable Reports to the Assembly.

The regular meeting of the Painters' Assembly was held last night at their headquarters on Louisiana avenue. The meeting was a large and enthusiastic one, but no decided action was taken with regard to the strike.

Reports were read from the various shops, showing that 163 painters were at work under the Eight-Hour law. These men, it is said, are employed by bosses who do not belong to the Master Painters' Association, and who agreed to the eight-hour plan. The strikers also reported that only three good journeymen painters were at work yesterday under the Nine-Hour law; the rest were indifferent or worthless workmen.

The situation was still unchanged this morning. The strikers' protestations no decided change took place until the next meeting of the assembly. The secretary said this morning that no special meetings of the assembly would be called. "We have unanimously decided," he said, "not to alter our by-laws and constitution in any way. We are determined to have our day's work begin at 7 a. m., an hour off at noon, but that we would not keep up ten hours a day. We do not expect any further action on the labor law from this session of Congress, but we will obtain some redress from the President. President Harrison is reported to have considered a call for an extra session of Congress in order to attend to the labor bill and other important matters. We do not see how he can do this, but the strikers are determined to move toward securing the eight-hour demand.

RECOVERED THE BODY.

But the Vandals Who Stole It Escape to Canada.

BURLINGTON, Vt., Sept. 20.—The body of Katie Collins, stolen from her grave by Dr. Pateneau, of Winslow, about a month ago was recovered last evening by Sheriff Reeves and Chief of Police Dumas from information from Dr. Pateneau, who with his accomplices, is in Canada. The corpse was buried in a place of woods 2 miles from Winslow Falls 3 feet under ground, wrapped in coarse sack and was not much decomposed.

A bill has been passed against Dr. Pateneau by the grand jury now in session.

Not Ready to Recognize Eosta.

Attorney Secretary of State Wharton said last night that the Department had not sent any telegram to Minister Miner authorizing him to officially recognize Eosta's government, as had been announced in a dispatch from San Salvador. Mr. Wharton said that steps would be taken to recognize Eosta, but he was not prepared to make the contents public.

District Notes.

Messrs. John H. Crawford and John Stetson have been appointed inspectors of the temporary street toll at 4¢ per mile.

"The Saturday Mirror."

The second number of The Saturday Mirror made its appearance to-day. It is a weekly paper and well filled with select reading matter that cannot be found elsewhere. The political gossip is of the best and shows the work of a master hand. It is full of bright wit and is in prose and verse.
